Introduction

The Stewart B. McKinney-Bruce Vento Homeless Education Assistance Act (McKinney-Vento Act), (In this document also referred to as “MKV”) reauthorized by Congress in January 2002, establishes the following policy for the education for homeless children and youth:

“Each State educational agency shall ensure that each child of a homeless individual and each homeless youth has equal access to the same free, appropriate public education, including a public preschool education, as provided to other children and youths.”

Career Academy of Utah (CAU) is committed to identifying and providing services through The Homeless Education Program, which is incorporated in this Policy and Procedures Manual. The Homeless Education Program serves homeless children and youth by ensuring that they are furnished with school placement, registration, homeless awareness activities for students, school-based personnel, community groups, and transportation services. The primary objective of this program is to prevent homeless children and youth from being stigmatized or separated, segregated, or isolated based on their status as homeless.

Identification of Students Experiencing Homelessness

CAU will utilize the following chart to best serve our students under McKinney-Vento.

Step 1

- Is the child or youth:
 - Sharing housing of others due to loss of housing, economic hardships , or similar reason?
 - Living in motels, hotels, trailer parks, or camp grounds?
 - Living in emergency or transitional shelters?
 - Abandoned in hospitals?

If yes, apply McKinney-Vento Act.
If no, go to Step 2.

Step 2

- Is the child or youth residing at a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings?

If yes, apply McKinney-Vento Act.
If no, go to Step 3.

Step 3

- Is the child or youth living in a car, park, public space, abandoned building, substandard housing, bus or train station, or similar setting?

If yes, apply McKinney-Vento Act.
If no, go to Step 4.

Step 4

- Does the child or youth lack a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence? (see * below)

If yes, apply McKinney-Vento Act.
If no, don't apply the McKinney-Vento Act.
If unclear, see if the definitions below can help or seek legal advice.

FIXED:

- Securely placed or fastened
- Not subject to change or fluctuation
(Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Tenth Edition)

*A fixed residence is stationary, permanent, and not subject to change.

REGULAR:

- Normal, standard
- Constituted, conducted, or done in conformity with established or prescribed usages.
- Recurring, attending or functioning at fixed or uniform intervals.
(Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Tenth Edition)

What Are Ways to Identify Students Who are Experiencing Homelessness?

School employees will be aware of the silent signals students may present. These characteristics could be attributed to students with other issues, as well as those students/families, experiencing homelessness:

- Attendance at several schools
- More than one family at the same address
- Poor hygiene and grooming
- Hunger and hoarding of food
- Vague when asked about proof of residency
- Some common statements used by homeless students/families may include:
 - “We’ve moved a lot.”
 - “We’re staying with relatives/friends while looking for a place.”
 - “We’re going through a bad time right now.”

If homelessness is suspected, follow up questions will be asked:

1. Are you living in this household because you do not have stable housing?

2. Do you live in any of these situations?

___ sharing housing with relatives or others due to lack of housing ___ in a shelter or transitional living program ___ in a motel, hotel, park, or campground due to a lack of adequate housing ___ in a car or RV or a public place (such as a bus station) ___ in sub-standard housing, such as an abandoned building ___ without a parent or guardian, or a teen (up to age 21) living independently ___ parents are migrant workers ___ in other situations that are not fixed, regular or adequate for nighttime residence

3. Would you be willing to talk/meet with our Liaison to discuss resources available to you?

Complex Conditions

Doubled-Up

Doubled-up situations can be particularly confusing when making housing determinations because it can be difficult to discern fixed housing from temporary. The law refers to this category of homelessness as “sharing housing due to loss of housing, economic hardship, or similar reason” [42 U.S.C. § 11434a(2)(b)(i)]. According to data collected by the U.S. Department of Education, this category of nighttime residence is the type experienced by the largest number of students each year (NCHE, 2013).

If the reason the family or youth moved in with a family member or friend is clearly due to loss of housing or even job loss, it can be easy to determine that the housing fits the category of doubled-up. Similarly, sometimes shared housing is clearly inadequate and therefore easy to identify. However, some situations are less clear as homelessness can last from a few hours to many years and may involve a variety of circumstances. It is important to keep in mind that the reason for the lost housing is not defined in the law and can include a wide range of catalysts such as unpaid rent or mortgage payments on the part of the family or landlord, housing covenant violations, fires, natural disasters, and more. Additionally, there is no time limit on homelessness. As long as the student fits the definition of lacking a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence, the student will be eligible for McKinney-Vento services.

Questions to help determine if the student is eligible for assistance under the McKinney-Vento definition:

Why did the family move in together? Was it for mutual benefit or due to a crisis or other precipitating event?

Is there a plan for the household to remain intact over the long term, or is it a short-term situation?

Where would the family be if they were not able to stay where they are? In a clearly homeless situation or another apartment or house?

Does everyone have a bed to sleep in? Are the plumbing and electrical service safe? Is the housing otherwise adequate?

Is the family being added to the lease, or have they signed a lease?

Does the homeowner or renter have a legal right to force the family to leave without cause if they choose to do so?

Not all doubled-up situations are homeless according to the law, but they do often provide a feasible option for families when shelters are unavailable or full. In the instance that a family has doubled up with another, only the family who is temporarily staying in the housing should be considered homeless, with very rare exceptions. Liaisons should re-evaluate the housing of homeless students at the beginning of each school year to verify that the student still lacks fixed, regular, and adequate housing.

Unaccompanied Homeless Youth

Over time, the law has been adjusted through reauthorization to better meet the needs of students experiencing homelessness. One such adjustment includes the insertion of a definition for unaccompanied youth in law, along with information about rights specifically for unaccompanied homeless youth. An unaccompanied youth is a youth who is “not in the physical custody of a parent or guardian” [42 U.S.C. § 11434(a)(6)]. It is important to note that the definition of unaccompanied youth does not automatically indicate that the youth is homeless, but that the student is separated from the physical custody of a parent or guardian. In other words, not all unaccompanied youth are homeless. Any unaccompanied youth, however, who is residing in a situation that is not fixed, regular, or adequate, is considered a homeless unaccompanied youth. When determining McKinney-Vento rights for youth, liaisons must determine if the student is both homeless and unaccompanied as the student could be one or both. When working with youth, evaluating the housing status before considering unaccompanied status can make the process less confusing. If the situation is not homeless, the youth is not afforded rights under the McKinney-Vento Act, even if the student is unaccompanied; in this instance, state or local policy will apply. It is also important to note that the definition discusses physical custody. A parent or guardian could still retain legal custody of a youth, but not have physical custody of the youth.

Substandard Housing

When considering the definition of homelessness, the term adequate is often associated with substandard housing. Substandard housing does not have a definition in federal law or rule. This can lead to frustration on the part of liaisons making eligibility determinations, but it also allows liaisons to have flexibility in making determinations that reflect regional norms and community standards that would be difficult to capture in a single definition applied to the entire country. One simple consideration for liaisons is to determine if the housing is up to state or local building codes and health and safety codes. If it is not, the housing is probably substandard and any student residing there would likely meet the definition of homeless due to inadequate housing.

Examples of substandard housing could include homes:

- without adequate heat, electricity, or water;
- with unsafe heat sources or electrical service;
- with unsafe conditions, such as holes in flooring;
- with a kitchen or plumbing that is inoperable; or
- condemned by housing or other government authorities.

Inadequate or substandard housing can also refer to conditions that go beyond the structure of the building, such as overcrowding. As you consider if a home is adequate, it may be helpful to ask yourself, “Is this home safe? Does it meet basic needs and provide sufficient space for the individuals living in it?” If the answer is no to any part of those questions, the housing may be inadequate and indicate homeless conditions

Natural Disasters

Mental health experts consider returning to school a critical step in the healing process for children and youth whose lives have been disrupted by disasters (UCLA, n.d.). Going to school helps these students find the structure, normalcy, and routine that is essential to their health and wellbeing. Children and youth who are displaced by disasters, like other students in homeless situations, are forced to live in a variety of unstable, temporary arrangements. These arrangements include facilities set up by relief and community agencies, as well as motels, cars, campgrounds, and sharing the housing of others. Students displaced by disasters will generally meet the definition of homelessness in the McKinney-Vento Act.

Tips for Confirming Eligibility

Do	Don't
Do implement the use of a district-wide residency questionnaire.	Don't contact landlords or housing agencies to conduct investigations about a student or family as it violates the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and is unlikely to provide useful information.
Do have parents, youth, or caregivers sign enrollment forms indicating that McKinney-Vento services are offered based on information they have provided about their living situations.	Don't conduct surveillance of students or families, such as following them, observing them from outside their residences, or talking to neighbors about their living situations.
Do use only school staff trained on the McKinney-Vento Act and homelessness to do home visits.	Don't use police officers for home visits.
Do use visits only when necessary. Do explain to the family, youth, and the homeowner why the visit is occurring. Assure them that all information will remain confidential, and conduct only the minimum investigation necessary to verify the living situation.	Don't require documents like eviction notices, utility bills, occupancy permits, or notarized letters from host families.
Do contact previous schools to determine if the student was identified as homeless while attending that school.	Don't force caregivers to obtain legal custody or guardianship. The McKinney-Vento Act requires the immediate enrollment of unaccompanied youth; legal custody or guardianship cannot be prerequisites and are not appropriate in many instances.

Do talk with parents and youth about their situations, focusing on basic questions and using care and sensitivity.	Don't force people into shelters or onto the streets as a prerequisite for McKinney-Vento services.
Do work with parents, youth, and caregivers to determine if they are able to provide any documents that could confirm their living situations.
Do use caller ID to verify when parents or youth call from a hotel, motel, or shelter.

Student Referral to McKinney-Vento Liaison

Determining eligibility during enrollment

The McKinney-Vento Homeless Liaison identifies students experiencing homelessness during enrollment by the following procedure:

- Parents/Students are asked the following question during enrollment: Is your student's current address a temporary living arrangement? This question is intended to address the McKinney - Vento Act, 42 U.S.C. 11435. The answer to this residency information will help determine the services the student may be eligible to receive.
- The Child Find Report will be pulled by the McKinney-Vento Homeless Liaison at a minimum of 1x per week to identify those students with an affirmative response to the question above.
- All affirmative responses will be contacted by the McKinney-Vento Homeless Liaison for additional information as needed to determine eligibility.
- The Liaison will email the student/family the Educational Rights of Homeless Students upon enrollment with MKV eligibility.
- Notes regarding MKV status and eligibility will be maintained in Total View School (TVS). For easy future reference, all notes regarding MKV status will be titled "MKV Eligibility." The body of the note will have more specific information.

Teacher/Staff Referrals

Review Total View Notes to determine if the Liaison has already assessed the student's eligibility. If the student was not eligible or not contacted and you have further evidence regarding MKV status, follow the steps below:

- To check enrollment notes: Click on the "Notes" tab when in TVS, under "Views" on the left-hand side, choose "Enrollment Notes About Student" and look for any notes "MKV Eligibility." The body of the note will have more information in regards to eligibility.

- Teacher/Staff completes the McKinney-Vento Referral Questionnaire (see appendix) to gather information for the Liaison.
- Email the student/family information to the Liaison.
 - Include the following information in the body of the email:
 - Student First Initial, Last Name
 - Student ID
 - Summary of living conditions or other information
 - Best phone number or preferred form of contact by family if phone contact is not available
 - Immediate student/family needs, including internet, computers, transportation to state testing

Available Services for Eligible Students

CAU sets aside XX% of Title I funding to support the needs of McKinney-Vento Students. Support services may include but are not limited to:

- School supplies (pens, paper, folders, pencils, etc. and including headsets, wireless adapter, required software for courses, etc.)
- Food or hygiene supplies for students/families
- Bus passes for students and Legal Guardians per request
- Priority on the waitlist
- Internet reimbursement/payment
- Connections with local resources
- Enrollment and Registration approval
- Transportation to in-person events (testing or other school activities)

Educational Rights of Homeless Children and Youth

Once a child or youth is identified as homeless, they are made aware of their rights regarding education. The list below is a brief overview of these rights:

- Academic Achievement
 - Students must be given access to educational and supplemental resources to achieve academic success.
 - LEAs must demonstrate how they will close the achievement gap between students who are meeting and students who are not meeting the state academic standards.
 - LEAs must demonstrate how they will support enrollment, attendance, and success of HCY, including through Title I set-asides.
- Segregation/Stigmatization
 - LEAs cannot separate students from the mainstream school environment.
- Transportation

- LEAs, to the extent feasible, must provide means of traveling to either the school or origin or the school of residence.
 - Transportation eligibility through MKV services lasts until the end of the school year in which the student is identified.
- Dispute Resolution
 - Every state must establish procedures to resolve disputes regarding the educational placement of HCY and unaccompanied youth.
 - A dispute must be carried out by the liaison as expeditiously as possible. In the meantime, the student must be admitted immediately to the requested school while the dispute is being resolved.
- Enrollment
 - State Education Agencies and Local Education Agencies must develop, review, and revise their policies to remove barriers from school enrollment for HCY.
 - LEAs must enroll students immediately even without required paperwork, citing that removal of barriers to enrollment must take place for HCY.
 - This includes removing fees, absences, and enrollment deadlines as barriers so that the student may immediately attend.
 - Liaisons are responsible for requesting records for the student.
 - LEAs must maintain records for the student in case of transfer.

Dispute Resolution Policy

CAU Homeless Student Dispute Resolution Procedures

1. A parent/guardian of a homeless student has the right to enroll their student in either the “school of origin,” which may be the last school attended by the student when permanently housed (to the extent reasonably feasible, and if in the best interests of the homeless student) or the school which serves the location where the student currently resides.
2. The school must provide the parent/guardian, or unaccompanied student, with written information regarding school selection or enrollment options available to homeless students under the McKinney-Vento Act.
3. If a school selection or enrollment dispute develops over the selection or enrollment options available pursuant to the McKinney-Vento Act, the school must immediately enroll the homeless student in the school in which enrollment is sought by the parent/guardian, pending resolution of the dispute. In the case of an unaccompanied student, the District Homeless Liaison ensures the student is immediately enrolled in the school pending resolution of the dispute.
4. To initiate the dispute resolution process, a Homeless Student Dispute Resolution Form must be completed and filed with the principal of the school wherein the student is currently enrolled.

5. After receipt of the Homeless Student Dispute Resolution Form, the school principal shall meet with the parent/guardian or unaccompanied student in an effort to resolve the school selection or enrollment dispute. If a school selection or enrollment resolution is not reached at the school level, the school principal must notify the District Homeless Liaison of the dispute, and refer the parent/guardian or unaccompanied student to the District Homeless Liaison.

6. The District Homeless Liaison shall meet with the parent/guardian or unaccompanied student in an effort to resolve the school selection or enrollment dispute. Within ten (10) business days of the meeting, the District Homeless Liaison shall provide the parent/guardian or unaccompanied student with a written decision regarding the school selection or enrollment decision. The decision shall also include a statement regarding the right to file a complaint with the Utah State Office of Education.

7. Complaints to the Utah State Office of Education shall be in writing and signed by the parent/guardian or unaccompanied student and mailed or delivered to:

State Homeless Coordinator
Utah State Office of Education
250 East 500 South
P.O. Box 144200
Salt Lake City, UT 84114-4200

8. The State Homeless Coordinator will inform the involved school district(s) of the complaint. The Coordinator will gather needed information and statements of the parties involved and may conduct an independent investigation through an on-site visit if necessary.

9. The State Homeless Coordinator, in consultation with other state officials, will render a written decision and inform the interested parties.

10. If the parent/guardian or unaccompanied student disagrees with the decision rendered by the Utah State Office of Education, the parent/guardian or unaccompanied student has the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights.

Sample Residency Information Form

This questionnaire complies with the McKinney-Vento Act, 42 U.S.C. § 11431 et seq. Your answers will help determine if the student meets eligibility requirements for services under the McKinney-Vento Act. The McKinney-Vento program is designed to address the problems that homeless children and youth have faced in enrolling, attending, and succeeding in school. Under this program, educational agencies must ensure that each homeless child and youth has equal access to the same free, appropriate public education, including public preschool education, as other children and youth. Homeless children and youth should have access to the educational and other services that they need to enable them to meet the same challenging state student academic achievement standards to which all students are held.

- 2) Transportation to the school of origin for the regular school day;
- 3) Access to free meals, Title I and other educational programs, and transportation to extra-curricular activities to the same extent that it is offered to other students.

Any questions about these rights can be directed to the local McKinney-Vento Liaison at [Insert phone number] or the State Coordinator at [Insert phone number].
